

We Are Excited!

You have just been invited to join Marnie's Friends: a wonderful group of experts and interviewees.

Marnie's Friends Radio Show is an hour-long, jam-packed training show where guests receive practical, doable, step-by-step tips from experts, training that shortens learning curves and increases proficiency in one specific Leadership Skill Zone* each week. The show is frequented by Marnie's group of over 16,000 Women's Ministry Leaders, 900 speakers, plus other Blog Talk Radio Drop-Ins.

Increasing Your Sphere of Influence

The live show is just one arm of the publicity opportunity you are being offered here. Before the show, your guest appearance is promoted in our newsletter, in that week's "MarnieMinute" and blog, plus in last-minute SN pings that go out to Marnie's entire network.

In addition, you will want to take advantage of this unique opportunity to let your own group know about your interview as an expert on xxx topic. Send an email, include it in your newsletter, post it on your blog and social networking sites. Maximize this exposure before, during and even after the show, by making the interview recording available on your own website. This one interview can generate buzz, leads and bookings for months or even years to come. Use what God has provided to increase your sphere of influence.

Post-Show Audio Recording

Assuming technical success at gaining an audio recording of the live broadcast, the audio will become joint property of the host and guest. Both parties retain 100% ownership rights and may use the program in part or full for any reasonable way without the permission of the other. You may download your MP3 from <http://www.blogtalkradio.com/marniesfriends> within minutes after your show airs. Scroll down to the On-Demand Audios and select "Download".
