

Interview One Sheet

Marnie Swedberg Author of Feeling Loved: Connecting with God In the Minutes You Have

Intro/Bio

Barna Research

- 81% of adults are unhappy with their work/life balance and 60% feel overworked.
- 88% of Americans say their religious faith is very important to them.
- Only 3% sight their enjoyment of God as their greatest source of spiritual fulfillment.

Marnie Swedberg is part of that 3% minority.

One of the busiest people around, Swedberg is never too busy to breathe the air of prayer. She is the mentor to super busy women, sharing her life and God-focus with thousands worldwide. She lives in beautiful Warroad, Minnesota, with her husband, Dave, of 27 years, is the mother to Mark(23), Keren(22) and Tim(18). She also

- Manages the family restaurant,
- Assists with the family retail store and espresso café,
- Hosts the largest online directory of Christian Women Speakers in the world,
- Writes books, songs and articles, plus hosts a weekly radio talk show for leaders, and
- Serves on her church's worship team.

She joins us today to share how even the busiest people can find time to experience a deeply enjoyable relationship with God. [Additional bio details at <http://www.Marnie.com/About.php>]

Talk Points

- Why do you think only 3% of people claim to find their relationship with God highly enjoyable?
- You appear to actually have fun with God. Tell us about that.
- The book focuses a lot of attention on feelings and emotions. Why?
 - Persistent Emotions are like Merry Go Rounds
 - Perspective – Helicopter Analogy
 - Prayer – Dolphin Analogy
 - Power – Airplane Analogy
 - Peace – Barometer Analogy
- In the book you say, “What’s done in Vegas is seen in heaven.” Where does one go from there?
- Your book includes 46 ready-to-personalize Scripture prayers. Why are you a fan of Scripture prayers?
- You have an interesting perspective about a Christian’s role in serving God. Tell us about that.

Free Stuff

You are offering a few free resources to listeners today from your website at www.Marnie.com.

- Scripture Memorization Tool – the adult-friendly way to memorize a verse a day.
- Personality Test & Results Overview (to augment “How Personalities Worship” in the book)
- Also, you’ve agreed to give away and ship a book to someone in our audience.

Marnie Swedberg ~ www.Marnie.com